

A LETTER FROM PERU

DO

You get a letter from Peru

LA-

written by your friend,

FA

it tells you about a blind man

SOL

who needs a helping hand.

The man has lost his wife and raised his children on his own.

His head is full of problems,

he has to solve alone.

FA

DO

"My little boy is losing sight, there's nothing I can do.

FA

FA-

SOL

He needs an operation. Can I count on you?"

FA SOL MI-

Ooooh Listen to this letter

Listen to your heart, you can make it better.

This is not TV, you're not reading papers.

FA

SOL

DO

Someone with a name calls you.

Your friend says to the blind man

"maybe something could be done:

in Chacas there's an hospital where they will help your son

This evening I will write my friends

to tell them about you,

maybe they will earn the money

with the work they do."

And so my friends is up to us to answer yes or no,

to get out of our lazy chairs,

let our loving grow.

Ooooh Listen to this letter.

Listen to your heart, you can make it better.

This is not TV, you're not reading papers.

Someone with a name calls you.
